Abstract: This is a vital study which is concerned with the demographic aspect of Arab- Israeli's Struggle on Palestine, during the 2 nd. half of 20 the century. Its tools are not arms, but Jewish immigration and natural increase and reduce the Arab presence to at least, which will be dominant to control sovereignty over Palestine.

It consists of an introduction and two parts. The first one reviews the role of Jewish Agency, and examines the Jewish Immigration by departure and dropping. The second part deals with the population of Israel in general, Settlers in the West Bank and Gaza Strip, and the status of the Arab citizens there. The conclusion lays a future focus on the subject.
